- Infection: Don't Pass It On

Infection: Don't Pass It On is a VA public health campaign established through a collaboration between the Office of Public Health and Environmental Hazards, National Center for Patient Safety, Employee Education System, Infectious Diseases Program Office, National Center for Health Promotion and Disease Prevention (NCP) and VA experts in infection control. The goal of the campaign is to involve staff, patients, and visitors in taking basic steps to preventing infection, whether occurring daily, seasonally, or occurring during infectious disease emergencies (natural or manmade).
